RANGER

You may want to update or create a new version of a report in a workbook that is not connected to the report. You can access and connect to the report you want to update by finding a report and connecting it to your workbook. This guide shows you how to work through the process of finding a report and connecting to it so you can create new versions or new updates of it. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to customer support.
